IMPORTANT SALE

IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA

THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of

to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.

The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.

The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.

Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

A CARD.

IT is proposed by the Philanthropic Society of the University of North Carolina to collect information relative to her Alumni and Members who participated in the late war. She has concluded, (as the most effectual way,) to address a Card to the Public, asking its assistance in this most praiseworthy undertaking.

The information desired is to embrace the rank and command of the individual; if dead, how and where; if wounded, in what battle, and if severely or not and if resigned, whether from disability or not. Information is particularly requested in reference to the class of 1858-'60, but an account of all classes is also wished.

The Society is convinced, unless a generous assistance is given her by the friends and relatives of those mentioned, that her attempt at compiling such material must be futile. She therefore earnestly requests each and every one, who is competent, and especially does she expect the hearty co-operation of her old and Honorary Members, to give the desired information, and at once, as half its value will be lost from delay in giving it.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation for over twelve years, and, during that time it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Pasham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday Evening, Sept. 8, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR, JONATHAN WORTH, OF RANDOLPH.

The Annual Election.

The election for Governor and members of the Legislature, by order of the late Convention, takes place on the 18th. of Oct. next, the third Thursday. It is, therefore, only forty days, not quite six weeks, off.

In many counties we have heard of no candidates yet announced or brought out by the people. The interests involved in this election are immense. Our Federal relations are still delicate and disturbing. The proposition of the Radical Congress to amend the Constitution of the U. S., in a manner deeply and widely affecting the reserved rights of the States, seriously reducing our representation in Congress, menacing the Southern States with universal negro suffrage, and disfranchising the great body of our people who have ever filled public office, either under Federal or State authority, will be laid before the next Legislature for its rejection or adoption. This is a grave question. It will be urged upon the favor of the Legislature by the Radicals or Holdenites of the State, "as the best we can do." Most gloomy and fearful predictions will be made of the consequences of rejection. We need firm, honest and able men, to meet this issue fully in the canvass, and it must be met, manfully, both on the hustings and in the Legislature.

Moreover, other important and exciting issues will be brought into the canvass. The change of the basis of representation, now fixed upon population and taxation, will be advocated, making the number of the white population the basis for representation for both Houses, thus ignoring the claims of property altogether.—Our financial difficulties must be carefully reviewed and considered by the next Legislature and various other serious subjects must enter into the campaign and into the Assembly.

We repeat that we need our soundest, ablest and most conservative men in the next Legislature. Let the people move at once in this matter. It will be seen that Northampton has spoken out, and with one voice demands the re election of Gov. Worth. This is no time for the people either to be indifferent to the election, or simply to cast their votes for old friends or favorites. We would not vote for our father, if we doubted his soundness upon the great national issue before us. Every man we vote for must be anti-radical, to the hub, and he must be honest, patriotic, devoted to the honor and interest of the State, a sound loyal Union man and a friend of Andrew Johnson's policy. Vote for no one else.

Stamps.

Attention, of parties interested, is called to the following provision of the amendment to the Revenue act passed by Congress:

And provided further, That in all cases where the party has not affixed the stamp required by law upon any instrument made, signed, or issued, at a time when and at a place where no collection district was established, it shall be lawful for him or them, or any party having an interest therein, to affix the proper stamp thereto, or if the original be lost, to a copy thereof; and the instrument or copy to which the proper stamp has been thus affixed prior to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty seven, and the record thereof, shall be as valid, to all intents and purposes, as if stamped by the collector in the manner hereinbefore provided. But no right acquired in good faith before the stamping of such instrument or copy thereof, and the recording thereof, as herein provided, if such record be required by law, shall in any manner be affected by such stamping as aforesaid.

It thus appears that parties in possession of instruments made during the war and since, before a collection district was constituted, may themselves affix the proper stamps at any time prior to January 1, 1867.

Where the consideration in deeds, &c., is expressed in Confederate currency, we learn that it is proper to scale that consideration to its value in greenbacks. Of course it would be best to do this with cognizance of a collector.

"The Milk in the Cocoanut."

There are only two points in the Radical programme that Southern Radicals care a groat about. The first is the disfranchising clause of the Howard amendment, by which they hope to get all the offices. The second is, to establish universal negro suffrage, which they think the most certain means of getting the offices.

But the truth is, if the Republic were to consent to yield both measures, not one out of every hundred Radicals could either get the offices or hold them. For, in the first place, the negroes would not vote for one in a hundred of such ignorant, bad-tempered boeras, and, in the second place, if they were elected, the government, in many cases, would have to remove them for incompetency or delinquency.

THE Standard says that but for the fact that the machinery of the State government "is in the hands of secessionists," and but for the "influences thus brought to bear," it would be an easy matter to place the State in loyal hands,—by which it means in the hands of those who agree with it in political sentiment. How was it when the EX P. G. was a candidate for civil Governor? All the machinery of the State government was in his hands then,—he had an immense patronage at his disposal,—he put none but loyal men in office, of course,—but he wasn't elected!

A WRITER in the Southern Churchman, (Episcopal,) over the signature of "Faith," urges upon all Southern Christians to make the speedy release of Mr. Jefferson Davis, and his restoration to his family, the special subject of prayer.

The "Loyal" Convention.

The Radical organ in this city speaks of the nondescript Convention of whites, negroes and bloomers at Philadelphia as "the loyal Convention." Of course, being "loyal," it endorses its doings. Let us look at some of the more recent of its performances, in order to amuse ourselves, and, at the same time, see what delightful associations the Standard has selected.

The lowest abuse and foulest slanders of the President mark every stage of the proceedings. Is this loyal, in the estimation of the Ex. P. G.? He is pronounced a traitor, a renegade, a perjurer, an example of "total depravity," and an ally of Satan. On these and similar terms all the changes are rung hourly. Although the vocabulary of Billingsgate was well nigh exhausted, Mr. Theodore Tilton, the editor of a "religious" paper, managed to fling a new epithet at Mr. Johnson. He facetiously said: "A general officer of the army asked him, 'on his way here, why the President was like a harp struck with lightning? Of course he could not tell. The answer was, 'Because he is a blasted (lyre) liar.'"

A prayer, on the opening of one of the morning sessions, was delivered by one Rev. Mr. Newman, (a New Orleans Yankee belonging, as Brownlow does, to the M. E. Church, North,) and his infamous and blasphemous ravings were enough to send a thrill of horror through any other assemblage. He invoked the Almighty "to deliver the country from the rule of him, who, by Satanic agency, has been imposed upon us as a ruler!" Is this "loyal?"

We have heretofore mentioned that Miss Anna Dickinson, the strong-minded advocate of breeches for women, yielding to pressing invitations, had taken a seat of honor on the rostrum. She also made a speech, in which she declared that "she was so overwhelmed by the outburst of undeserved enthusiasm with which she was greeted from true Southern men, that her tongue refused to do its office." This is something barely short of a miracle. Ordinarily, "the gentle Annie's" tongue is hung on a pivot, and wags at both ends.

In the general mass of insanities, vulgarities and malignities, we find what is styed by the correspondent of the Washington Chronicle "An Historic Relic."

"Mr. Charles Gibbons, Chairman of the Reception Committee, then came forward with a small gavel in his hand, and said: 'I hold in my hand the identical gavel used in Charleston, South Carolina, when the Convention assembled there in 1860 for the dissolution of the American Union.' [Derisive laughter, and shouts of throw it away.]

This is the gavel which called together that Convention which declared the American Union dissolved. [Cries of 'break it up—throw here,' &c.] 'Sir,' turning to Gov. Hamilton, I 'have the pleasure of tendering it to you for the purpose of calling together that loyal Convention which is to lay the foundation for the re-establishment of that Union.'

Gov. Hamilton accepted the gift and then the ceremonies were declared ended."

Now it really appears to us that this presentation was in most excellent taste and exceedingly appropriate. The gavel is in worthy hands Our Ex. P. G. should have been present to assist Hamilton in the reception. The men who advocated secession and war in 1856 may well preach a crusade against peace and re-construction in 1866.

Gov. Coney, of Maine, gave it as his opinion that "the negro at the South is better fitted to vote than the most accomplished rebel from the Potomac to the Rio Grande." This is "loyal," of course, and may also be classed under the head of "decent;" and we suggest to the Radical organ that additional designation of its Convention.

Gov. Yates alluded to his friend Fred. Douglas, and said "he would rather walk arm-in-arm with that accomplished gentleman than march in a Johnson procession with the best bred of them."

Notwithstanding all this theoretical sympathy, however, upon the part of the "loyal" Governors, a singular spectacle has been presented in Philadelphia. The Northern Radicals are trying to restrain their Southern brethren on the question of negro suffrage. At a meeting of Northern delegates, it was resolved that it would not do to go beyond the Congressional platform, for the present. They said their people were not prepared for the negro suffrage platform, and would not sustain it. They are perfectly willing that the Southern people should descend to equality with the blacks, but they are not quite prepared to take that step themselves, and so advise their Southern brethren to drop the subject. This, however, they are unwilling to do, and, accordingly, it is understood that Hamilton and Brownlow, (both of them "pure" and "glorious patriots," according to the Standard,) and other "loyal" men, will insist on a minority report, to be spread upon the records, insisting upon "nigger suffrage" square up. Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts, thus explained the matter:

"Every aspirant who thinks it will aid him in his search for office will endeavor to secure negro suffrage. As soon as a candidate is beaten by an opponent through white votes, he will turn to seek revenge through negro votes. Thus two parties will be raised, and that is the most essential feature for us now. If we can keep the South out of any share in the government until we initiate an opposition party there, we are all right."

The Radical organ in this city speaks of thirteen ("loyal") delegates in this Convention.—We have seen the names of but seven mentioned in the course of its proceedings. We proceed to classify them,—the Standard having failed to discharge this important duty:

1. Chaplain Glavis:—Convicted of a misdemeanor before a military Commission.
2. —— Tourgee:—An Ohio abolitionist.
3. Hope Baine:—A Yankee and Universalist Preacher.
4. Rev. Jas. Sinclair:—A Scotchman, under censure by his Presbytery.
5. D. R. Goodloe:—An expatriated North Carolina abolitionist.
6. Hon. A. H. Jones:—According to the Standard, a deserter from the Confederate army.
7. Wynne: A Yankee or a North Carolina Buffalo.

Wake County.

The Johnson-Worth men in Wake County are admonished to delay no longer the bringing out of the ablest and best men among them, as candidates for the next Legislature. If gentlemen disposed to yield their services to the County at this crisis, such as are acceptable to the Johnson-Worth men, do not announce themselves as candidates within the next ten days, we urge an immediate call of a County Convention, on the 22d. of the present month, to select candidates for the Legislature.

Mr. Holden has claimed political control over the County for several years. His influence over many of the people in past years has been undoubted. That influence has been seriously broken by his strange and deplorable course, and it cannot be, now that he has gone over to the Radicals, discards and condemns the action of the late patriotic Convention of the National Union Men, at Philadelphia, and endorses the loyalty of the "Southern Loyal Convention" now in session in that city, that Wake County can any longer endorse him. We say that we do not believe that the people of Wake can either sanction Radicalism, or endorse Mr. Holden, or any of his abettors. Let us bring out sound, honest, reliable Johnson-Worth men, and none others—men devoted to the Constitution and the Union, who will enter heartily into all measures for the just and safe relief of the people and the promotion of the prosperity of the State.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

CHARLESTON, S. C., MILLS HOUSE,
September 5th., 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Having been in this famous city for a couple of days, it has occurred to me that some little notice of what I have seen and heard might find an acceptable place in the Sentinel. And first of this noble house, in which I am tabernacling. Mills House is a spacious hostelrie, for all who are weary and love clean sheets, and for all who are hungry and affect fat things. This House was erected in 1853, and has always been a first class Hotel even in a city like this—which of yore was the scene of elegant hospitality—and even now, in all its disasters, preserves much of its glorious character.

Mills House received 32 shells during the seige of Charleston, most of which burst, but left the stout old Mansion still standing erect. Its enterprising proprietor, Mr. Joseph Parcell, is constantly making repairs and improvements, and, in so doing, frequently finds shattered places in its walls before unknown. This gentleman informs me that they have been doing a splendidly remunerative business for the last year and more, notwithstanding the troubles of the time, and the general impecuniosity which afflicts the whole Southern country. Fewer sit at the tables just now, as many of the citizens are abroad in search of health and cool breezes, such as many are wise enough to seek in our own mountains. The table arrangements of Mills House are unimpeachable. But that is saying but little, considering their merits. Almost every variety of fish, flesh, fowl and fruits are at command, brought at short notice by very polite and active servants. Of all these bounties, however, I could not partake, and it was somewhat amusing to see the stare on the face of Jim or Cato, when, after examining the long bill of fare, through spectacles, with great solemnity, I beckoned the sable attendant to my side, and asked him gravely to bring a slice of ham and some Irish potatoes. I suspect the African thought there was greenness somewhere. But with this diet I am familiar at home, and this is no time to be swapping diets, unless you are quite sure of your digestive powers, and can in a sickly season risk the untried capacity of a stomach, which is sadly unfamiliar with most of the viands with which these tables groan. No, sirs! give me ham and potatoes, till I get back again, and then and there have time to elevate myself, by slow degrees, to these prandial elegancies, where good nursing is at hand in case of Hygeian difficulties, and also till, ahem! I may have greenbacks enough to make the experiment. We are apt to talk most what we most deeply feel—and this may, perhaps, account for this long story about table comforts, not much indulged in to be sure, but seen with great appreciation. Your humble servant did, however, punish the puddings and pies and iced sherbets, I believed they called them, and sundry other, almost forgotten, knick-knackeries to a considerable extent. This is a great House, and a good House, this Mills House. Long may it wave!

The desolation that swept across Charleston on that awful and tempestuous night when the fire king poured his whole wrath on this doomed city, causes one's heart to sink within him.—Charleston was cut in two, from river to river. The house in which I am writing barely escaped. It stood on the line of the terrible destroyer, and was in fact, considerably injured. The streets are yet in ruins. None able as yet to rebuild and reproduce their cherished homes.—Many impoverished, ruined,—some wanderers over the earth searching homes elsewhere. But where can they find such homes as they lost in this beautiful city on that awful night? Where shall they find the refined elegance in which they luxuriated? Where shall the domestic affections bloom as brightly as they once bloomed in this Queen City? Will they find abroad a King street, a Queen street, or a Meeting street, such as they left behind them? I have wandered among the ruins, and my heart has saddened and ached at the woe that is spread among so many squares—at the broken fortunes and the broken hearts made by this awful calamity. How is the city fallen! "Quantum mutata ab illa!" A thoughtfulness, almost sad, is on every brow. The lightness and gaiety of heart that once characterized Charlestonians, seems to be unknown. In the olden time King street and Queen street and others were alive with business and beauty and fashion; elegant ladies and high toned gentlemen met you at almost every step—all gone now! You meet a few who cannot quite forget the good old times. They strive to remember that they once were a great and flourishing and polished people. But it seems to be a hard struggle. The disasters of the past, and the humiliations of the present, weigh them down, and put upon their proud spirits a burden hard to be borne.

I find that all with whom I have conversed on the subject have yielded with quiet dignity to the changed condition of political affairs.—They are all the friends of the President and his policy, and it does the heart of a North Carolinian good to hear with what deep feelings of respect they speak of her honored son. All are for Johnson, and all seem to be loyal, and disposed to fall back into the Union with a quiet submission which seems indeed strange in South Carolinians. There is a dignity in their sufferings and a patience under provocation which seems to me more characteristic of the old reputation of our own modest, unpretending, much enduring old State. My heart goes out towards these Charlestonians. I never believed in their peculiar political creed. But I sympathise with them in their great sorrow, and, from the bottom of my heart, I honor them for the calm dignity with which they bear it. Yours, D.

The President's Progress.

The circumstances of the President's journey become more exciting as he traverses the West, on account of the sympathy and the intense hostility which the two parties in the community respectively exhibit towards him, and the bitterness they display towards each other. The trip through the "Western Reserve" of Ohio was like running the gauntlet of savages.

At Cleveland the President was exposed to the first public insults. While speaking there he was badgered by opponents in the crowd.—He was, however, by no means overawed or intimidated by the display of enmity, but poured the shot thick and fast into his assailants.—As he left the city next morning flags were flaunted in his path, containing quotations from his former speeches, but there was no disturbance. At Norwich he was enthusiastically received, but was also coarsely insulted. In answer to an insulting remark from the crowd, the President said:

"I should like to see that fellow who cries 'New Orleans.'"

Cries of "Here he is," and a billious, cadaverous, brazen, wall-eyed, red-headed object, of the lower stratum of mankind, was shoved forward by the crowd, and answered with an impudent stare the searching look of the President.

Mr. Johnson—"Ah, there you are! I thought you would look just about so."

The mobocratic element was again rampant, and their rage was allowed its vocal outpouring, while Mr. Johnson smilingly received the manual and floral congratulations of his friends."

At Fremont the President was very handsomely received. Thirty-six little girls in white bore a banner on which was touchingly inscribed "Welcome, our President."

At Toledo and at Monroe, the President was also enthusiastically received, and no unpleasant incident occurred. Detroit was the next point. Here the crowd was immense, and so thronged and jammed every place that the reception programme could not be carried out.—Gen. Grant, who had left the party at Cleveland, here rejoined the President. The speech of welcome warmly complimented the President's policy, and predicted for it the triumphant support of the people. The President was deeply affected and spoke for more than an hour, amid great applause, though toward the last roused and incensed by insults. He commenced by reiterating an opinion which he has often expressed, that this government has a great divine mission, which could not be defeated. He continued:

"He had always upheld the Union, and hence he had opposed the South in their efforts to dissolve it. But they have been overcome. Their armies have disbanded. Having failed in their effort, they come forward and say 'we accept the terms you offer.' They come back repentant, and acknowledging the supremacy of the Constitution, and ask to be admitted and welcomed, as States composing, in part, our galaxy. This being done, where is there a man, gallant and patriotic, who, when his toe lies prostrated at his feet, would wish to degrade him? (Cheers.)—Such was not his estimation of the character of our people. The war having ceased, and the proclamation of peace having gone forth, and not an armed foe existing in any Territory or State, who, he asked, was it that wanted to reopen the wounds for the purpose of gratifying party? Who was it that desired again to see a brother's land drenched with a brother's blood? Was there any one willing to go into another revolution? (Cries of "No, no.") He wanted to put a common sense proposition to his hearers. Suppose that eleven foreign States were lying outside of the Union, with all their advantages and riches of minerals, with all the capacity to constitute and make us in part a greater people. Suppose these States would come forward and say, 'We want to add our stars to your stars.'

Let me, he said, ask this sea of upturned faces—I would ask every one whose heart beats with national pride, and the love of freedom—would you not make them a part of this republic? (Cries of "yes, yes.") Would you receive them as accessories from a foreign power? (Renewed cries—"we would.") Where then is the man who can hesitate, and see bone of his bone, and flesh of his flesh, asking for admission, and yet shut the door in his face? I care not by what name he is called, if he would do this he is a disunionist; a Northern secessionist and disunionist. I fought the battle on the Southern extreme, and now, when the circle is going around, we find men attacking the Unionon the Northern verge. (Laughter and applause.) This glorious Union can be destroyed by a different way than by dividing it. You may have consolidation in the hands of a few.

He referred to the action of Congress on the Freedmen's Bureau bill and their opposition to the Executive department of the Government; said he would like to meet the whole phalanx of the men opposed to his principles. He would like to see the legislative department of the government, that is making charges against the Executive, go before the American people and test the question at issue; humble individual as he was, he would like to take the entire Congress entertaining these doctrines before the people and he would soon show who it was that was trying to absorb the liberty of the people. [Cheers.] He had stood as the Tribune of the people in defence of the people's rights, and he would continue their defender.

Have I not, he said, been elected President by you? (A voice—"That $25,000 a year.") Oh, indeed! That is what you give your Tribune is it? (Cheers.) Let me call your attention to this. I am not afraid to talk to the American people and all the little fellows they put into crowds to call out catch-words with a view of creating disrespect; I care not for them. The whole kennel has been turned loose upon me long since—their little dog Tray and Blanche and Sweet Heart—all have been let loose, yelping at my heels for the last eight months.—(Cheers.) The whole pack of slanderers and calumniators had better get out of my way.—(Great cheering.) I tell them that the American people are taking hold of the questions at issue, and when they begin to consider them, these usurpers and tyrants—because tyranny can be exercised more effectually by two hundred and forty-two men than by one single man—(cheers)—I tell them it will be better for them to keep their small boats near shore. (Continued cheering.)

The people are being waked up, and when the honest, intelligent and patriotic masses come to the rescue the whole set of them will be destroyed. But it was said here that I, the Tribune of the people, was getting $25,000 a year; but I ask this question, has it been increased since I came into office? (Cheers and cries of "No, no.") But let me tell you what Congress has done. They changed their pay since they came in to power. Yes! this Congress that has assailed and attacked me for the faithful discharge of my duty when the citadel of freedom was attacked,—(cheers) yes, this immaculate, this pure, this people-loving, this devoted Congress finds it convenient, while they had the chance, while they were in power, to increase their pay nearly double. (Great cheering and hisses.) Those who live in glass houses should never throw stones. (Cheers.) Yes, this immaculate Congress increased their pay nearly double, while at the same time they were magnanimous enough to vote $50 for the brave two year veterans of the war; $50 bounty for the men who shed their blood and lost their limbs in the defence of the country. For men mutilated and disabled from work forever this immaculate Congress gives $50, while they double their own emoluments,—(cries of sham) receiving $4,000 a year. Just pocket that as you go along. (Cheers and laughter.) They reckoned with some sagacity in the premises; they feared that there would be this uprising of the people, and that it would be the very last grab they would have at the public purse.—(Cheers.) I trust in you, and trusting in you, let the whole Congress come. Relying on you, I will meet them single handed and alone. In the words of the poet I exclaim:

'Come one, come all, this rock shall fly
From its firm base as soon as I.'"

A western paper strikes the names of two subscribers from its list because they were recently hung. The publisher says he was compelled to be severe.

The Albany Journal, red-hot radical, warns the party that the indecent treatment of the President at Cleaveland was a 'painful blunder,' and trusts it will not be repeated.

The call for the Cleaveland Convention is signed by 48 Major Generals, and 56 Brigadier Generals. Probably two thirds of all the officers who took part in the war will be present.

Ketchum lives well at Sing-Sing—keeps a refrigerator, receives calls in the prison parlor, but has to wear the stripes, march lock step, and go to meals with his poorer bretheren.

For three years service in the battle-field, the last Congress voted white veterans $100 bounty, negroes $300, and themselves $5,000. How do you like it?

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Oliver Ditson & Co., 277 Washington St., Boston, make another musical announcement.

Parties interested are referred to the advertisement of the Clerk and Master in Equity for Burke county.

The next scholastic year of Goldsboro Female College (Rev. S. Milton Frost, Principal,) will commence on Oct. 1. See announcement.

We invite attention to the Card of Rives and Proctor, Wholesale and Retail Druggists, 107 Sycamore St., Petersburg,—an excellent firm every way. Our North Carolina dealers will be in their own light not to give them a call.

The Virginia Steam Sugar Refinery is one of those Southern "institutions" which should be liberally encouraged. We commend their notice, in our advertising columns, to the attention of our public. Patronize home industry and enterprise.

James M. Towles, Raleigh, is Agent for the improved Cotton Gins described in his advertisement.

COUNTY WORK HOUSE.—The Commissioners of the County Work House have purchased "Camp Mangum," about three miles West of the City, as the site.

BAD PAPERS.—We discovered at too late an hour, on yesterday, to correct it, that several of our subscribers had been supplied with the Daily, considerably soiled with red clay or mud, into which they had been dropped by one of the boys. We regret this and shall guard against its recurrence.

SCUPPERNONG GRAPES.—This delightful fruit is now in full luxuriance, and may be had in any quantities, every morning, in our market. Lawson, in his history of North Carolina, calls it the "es-co-per-non." As reared in our Eastern counties, it is the most luscious grape of the entire genus.

By the way, we are glad to see that a company has been formed in Columbus county, with a view to the regular and scientific culture of the grape. The Wilmington Journal is publishing a series of articles upon the subject of its cultivation, and wine-making, from an intelligent pen. It is our purpose to republish them.

ARRIVALS AT YARBOROUGH HOUSE, SEPT. 7th., 1866.—Thos. M. Smedes, Miss; S. Boon, N. A. McArthur, L. J. Hinsdale and daughter, Fayetteville; Geo. C. Bourdett, Portsmouth, Va.; H. A. Foote, W. F. College; J. C. Codner, D. B. Everett, Wayne; C. S. Barbee, Barclaysville; H. S. Shore, Fayetteville.

THE LEGISLATURE.—A writer in the Salisbury Banner recommends Col. Thomas Meares and W. H. Crawford as suitable gentlemen to represent Rowan County in the next House of Commons.

SALEM FEMALE ACADEMY.—We are pleased to learn that the prospects of this excellent institution are highly flattering. There are now under its instruction 140 boarders and some fifty day-scholars.

REVIVALS.—An interesting revival has been in progress at Durham's, Orange Co., for a week or two. A large number have made a profession.

Under the labors of Rev. Mr. Raven, quite a number have professed faith in Christ at the Mission Chapel in this city, the present week. The meeting increases in interest.

Quite a religious interest exists in Johnson County. At Boon Hill, Wilson's Mill and at Clayton, many have made a profession of religion.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.—A friend writing us from this County, under date of Sept. 6th., says: "Our candidates for the Legislature have not yet been announced; but, whoever they may be, they will all be for Johnson and Governor Worth."

ENTERPRISE.—We learn that Hon. R. R. Bridgers, President of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. Co., will, in a few days, visit Europe on a mission to borrow money for the use of that company.

It is designed to use this money, if procured, in building stone, instead of wooden, culverts, and embankments instead of trestle work—to relay the road with new heavy iron, and in general to put it in first class condition.

The Western Sentinel can explain to the Standard why it is that the Union men of Forsythe county want protection. It is this: that stern old patriot, Union man and Statesman, Gen. J. F. Poindexter, was chosen by the Court County Attorney, and he is a terror to evil doers, and although the jury box was purged and all the Southern men cast overboard, the "old Fox" forces them to convict for crime, both Union men and Secessionists, and this is the reason why the Union men of Forsythe want protection—they want to escape the just sentence of the law, they want to go, in the language of a prominent Union man in the county, "unwhipped of justice." That is what the matter is. It is said that at a recent term of the Court that the jury undertook to oversaugh the old General, and refused to render a verdict against a Union man, clearly guilty in the eyes of the law and according to the evidence, and the whole jury came near getting themselves indicted for a high crime against the public policy. It is therefore to escape prosecution and punishment for abominable crimes committed in defiance of the civil law, the peace and dignity of the State, that these Union men, so-called, want protection.—Winston Sentinel.

This is as we have all along suspected. All the clamor that has been raised about the "persecution of Union men" has originated with those who dreaded the legal consequences of their own misdemeanors.

The latest notion of the Radicals is to abolish the office of President of the United States, and let Congress run the machine, or at least to dispense with the office until it can be filled with one of their own stripe.

[Correspondence of the Sentinel.]

MORGANTON, Sept. 4, 1866.

The Western N. C. Railroad Company met at this place on the 30th ult., agreeably to previous notice.

Col. W. H. Thomas, of Jackson, made a short address to the meeting, against changing the location of the road, West, to Asheville, and Aquone or Ducktown, to the North, to intersect the East Tennessee and Virginia road, at Jonesboro', to accommodate the Iron Company, who had purchased the Cranberry Iron works, and desired the change for their own benefit,—not to benefit the State.

He contended that our road, when completed, would form one of the links in the great chain of railroads intended to connect the Atlantic with the Pacific ocean, which would enable us to establish a line of steamers from our ports to Europe, to accommodate the travel and facilitate direct importations. But to make the roads profitable, he argued that all the companies must be consolidated and trans-shipments avoided, the same as had been done on all other competing roads from the Atlantic to the Mississippi valley. And that the North Carolina road had now effected a union with the roads leading to Norfolk, avoiding trans-shipments to that point, while our own ports could not be reached without trans-shipment. If this policy be continued, he contended that its effect would be to render unprofitable the portion of our Central Road East of Raleigh, 135 miles, and the Western extension, West of Salisbury, 80 miles.

Col. Thomas introduced a resolution, which was adopted, authorizing the President of the Company to appoint a suitable agent to confer with the different Railroad companies, for the purpose of effecting a consolidation with other companies and to establish, without trans-shipment, a Railroad connection with Morehead City, Wilmington or New York.

He closed by advocating the policy of President Johnson and condemning the policy of the Radicals, and regretted that any portion of our people should be so ignorant of the feelings and opinions of the Southern soldiers, as to believe that, after making the sacrifices for peace, they will ever submit to the terms proposed by the Radicals. And they should not be encouraged by any portion of our people to make such demands, which would make death preferable to life, if submitted to. What Southern man, said he, would wish to live to see such men as old General Lee, Johnson, Breckenridge, and the thousands of the best men of the South, disfranchised and placed politically below the meanest free negroes of the country?

When the Colonel uttered these expressions, a deep sense of feeling was not only manifested by himself,—but by all the large assembly of the best men in the country.

I may occasionally write you from the mountains. JUNIUS.

THE PEOPLE MOVING!

Meeting in Northampton County.

At a public meeting held in Jackson, Northampton county, on Monday last, Capt. J. M. S. Rogers was elected Chairman, and W. Talbert Walke and Thomas J. Garner were appointed Secretaries.

On motion of W. W. Peebles, a committee of twelve were appointed by the Chairman to report business for the meeting, and, if in their opinion advisable, to nominate suitable candidates for the next General Assembly of the State.

The following gentlemen constituted the committee:

W. W. Peebles, J. R. Mason, J. M. Moody, J. J. Bell, W. H. Garriss, Samuel T. Stancill, J. C. Fleetwood, Ethelred Edwards, Henry Spivey, Henry Gatling, A. J. Harrel, James H. Edwards.

In the absence of the committee, Dr. W. S. Copeland, being called on, addressed the meeting endorsing President Johnson, and explaining in energetic language the efforts of the Radical party for the complete subjection of the people of the South, and their innovations on the Constitution of the U. S.

The committee returned and reported through their Chairman the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Congress has no right to deprive any State of its representation in that body.

That the Federal Government has no right whatever to abridge or interfere with the freedom of speech or the press, nor to interfere with the right of the people to worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience.

That the Federal Government has no right to try or punish civilians by military commissions or by drum head courts martial.

That the question of suffrage belongs exclusively to the people of the States, and the Federal Government has no right whatever to interfere with it.

That the Federal Government has no right to take private property but for public use, and in no case without making just compensation.

That to tax the people of the Southern States, when at the same time they are denied representation, is a high-handed outrage, and in direct opposition to one of the leading principles upon which the revolutionary war was fought and won by our fathers.

That taxation should be made equal and uniform, and that the exemption of what is termed government securities or bonds from taxation altogether, is an unjust and an odious discrimination in favor of the rich against the poor, of the capitalist against the laborer, and of the monied aristocracy against the industrial classes of the country.

That the Freedmen's Bureau and the Civil Rights bills are odious and vindictive acts of Congressional legislation, and violative of the principles of the Constitution.

That in behalf of the people of Northampton county, we heartily approve of President Johnson's reconstruction policy and his course in the war which he is waging against fanaticism, and admire the manly boldness with which he is striving to preserve from farther violation the constitution of our common country.

On motion the resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The committee having offered as nominees, Gen. T. J. Persons, for the Senate, and Gen. M. W. Ransom and Samuel T. Stancill, for the House of Commons, on motion the nominations were unanimously accepted.

On motion, the nomination of Governor Worth for ~~another term of office~~ was approved by acclamation.

A committee of three, consisting of R. B. Peebles, Dr. W. S. Copeland and J. J. Bell were on motion appointed by the Chair to apprize Messrs. Persons, Ransom and Stancill of their nomination.

The proceedings of the meeting were, on motion, ordered to be published in the Weldon Semi-Weekly State and the Raleigh Sentinel.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

The "Mean White" Convention,—The Border States having Retired, Negro Suffrage is in the Ascendant,—Exciting Times and Final Dispersion!

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7, P. M.

There was an exciting debate in the Radical Convention, to-day, on the address reported by the Committee on the Reconstruction of States. A scene of the wildest excitement ensued,—showing that the Southern delegates are more bitter and antagonistic than before the Border States retired from the Convention.

Many of the delegates left this morning, leaving the Convention almost entirely in the hands of negro suffrage.

The Committee on the Address were almost unanimously against negro suffrage, while that on Resolutions stood 10 against and 5 for.

The delegates who were in favor of negro suffrage were invited to step to the Secretaries desk, and sign what was called "The Charter of Universal Freedom."

Resolutions were offered and adopted in favor of subscriptions for the publication of the proceedings of sympathy for Dostie, of New Orleans, of thanks to the loyal citizens of Philadelphia, and for the presentation of expensively bound volumes of the proceedings of the Convention to Fred Douglass, Anna Dickinson, and Theodore Tilton.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and cruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the miasmata of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMELTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Geodrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

CONVENTION, 1866.

The State Convention of colored men, held in this city last September, as a medium through which the colored citizens could communicate their thoughts, purposes and desires, formed a State League, with its auxiliaries, to look after the interests of the Colored People of the State. The State Legislature has been memorialized in behalf of the colored people, and our petition was treated with respectful consideration. We have, as far as practicable, established auxiliary Leagues to promote the cause of Education, and to look after the suffering poor. While we feel a deep sense of gratitude to those Benevolent Societies which have done so much for the Freedman, still we are conscious of the fact that we must learn to rely upon ourselves, and the world is looking to us for a demonstration of our capacity to perform the part of useful, intelligent citizens.

The State League is the only recognized organization we, as a colored people, have; and it having performed its duties to the best of its ability, it was enjoined upon us to call another Convention, to be held in the City of Raleigh, on the first Tuesday in October next, the 2nd. day of the month. Let each county be represented as the counties are represented in the State Legislature. In counties where there are Leagues the county to be represented by the Leagues.—Let each county send its best men as delegates.—This is no time to compliment friends at the expense of the public good. Let the people be influenced only by the consideration of qualification, and let the delegates be here promptly on the day appointed, that we may counsel together for the good of our people, and adopt such measures as will best promote our interests.

It is earnestly desired that every county be fully represented.

Delegates will come prepared to defray the expenses of the Convention.

BY ORDER OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.
